

University of Minnesota Start-up Seminar - Featuring a Funding Panel

February 06, 2013

Presented by: University of Minnesota Office for Technology Commercialization

Get your questions answered at a free startup seminar

University of Minnesota researchers, including faculty, graduate students and post-docs, are invited to a free start-up seminar hosted by the Office for Technology Commercialization. Get answers to key questions about the creation of new companies based on university technologies. This event will focus on how to fund a start-up with discussion about venture capital, angel investment, SBIR/STTR grants, MN Angel Tax credit, and more.

Agenda:

5:00-5:15 p.m. - Networking with complimentary beverages & appetizers

5:15-6:45 p.m. - Funding panel discussion

- Moderator: Doug Ramler, Gray Plant Mooty
- Kirk Nielsen, Versant Ventures
- David Russick, Gopher Angels
- Becky Aistrup, BBC Entrepreneurial Training and Consulting
- Russ Straate, Office for Technology Commercialization

6:45-7:30 p.m. - Q&A followed by networking

To register for this free event, click here.

Time:

5:00 - 7:30 pm

Location:

Campus Club, Coffman Memorial Union

Contact Information:

Doug Ramler