

Title IX/SaVE Act Boot Camp From trainED

September 23, 2014

Presented by: trainED

Higher education institutions are now legally required to provide specialized training on an annual basis on sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and related topics to employees with heightened responsibilities in these areas, such as Title IX coordinators and deputies, student services and human resources professionals, administrators, and campus security personnel.

Join us for a full day of in-depth training to satisfy the new legal requirements. The training will cover:

- Understanding the legal landscape of:
 - Title IX/Dear Colleague Letter
 - Campus SaVE Act/Violence Against Women Act/Clery Act
 - FERPA
 - Mandatory reporting laws
 - Recent resolution agreements
- Identifying Title IX coordinator role and responsibilities
- Determining key components of lawful and effective policies and procedures relating to sexual harassment and misconduct
- Conducting lawful and effective investigations and adjudications
- Providing services to victims of sexual violence
- Creating a culture of understanding and preventing sexual violence
